TASK DESCRIPTION

Task: Source Task – In Class

Topic: The Construction of Modern Histories – The Holocaust

Time: 1 hour

Description:

In your Modern History lesson, you will be provided with a range of sources and questions to answer based on your study of the Holocaust. You will be given 1 hour to answer these questions.

The sources will be focused on the syllabus dot points:

- The role of evidence, interpretation and perspective in the construction of historical accounts.
- Problems associated with the construction of modern histories: the abundance of documentary material, the incomplete nature of evidence and political controls on access to source materials, including classified records.
- The role of selectivity, emphasis and omission in the construction of historical accounts.

To prepare for this task, you should revise your classwork on types of evidence, the Nuremberg Trials, Holocaust Denial and key terms such as reliability, bias and usefulness.

TASK INSTRUCTIONS

- You will complete your task in your Period 2 and 3 Modern History lesson on Thursday 28/03/2024.
- If you require a variation on the due date, contact the Head Teacher Administration (Ms Eagles).
- Marks will be allocated per question on the test.
