TASK DESCRIPTION

Multimodal Presentation - Discovery and Investigation: English and the Sciences

In this unit we have been studying various scientific issues and topics that are important to our world today as well as various ways that these topics can be communicated. Your task is to choose a scientific/environmental issue to research. You will present your findings in a manner that makes the topic understandable to the everyday person.

You are then to compose a poster comparing and contrasting the Themes represented in 'The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time by Mark Haddon and 'Series 01: Episode 07 – The Dumpling Paradox' of the Big Bang Theory.

TASK INSTRUCTIONS

Part 1:

- 1. Select a scientific or environmental issue. You may focus on your issue from a local, national and/or international perspective.
- 2. Research the topic with the aim of developing an individual perspective on its potential impact on the world.
- 3. Present your findings in the form of a PowerPoint. You should include:
 - □ A clear explanation of your chosen issue
 - Discuss your own informed opinion about the possible benefits and negatives your chosen issue may have on our world
 - □ Relevant visuals, audio, and written information

Part B:

- 1. You are to create a Poster Comparing and Contrasting the Themes represented in 'The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time by Mark Haddon and 'Series 01: Episode 07 – The Dumpling Paradox' of the Big Bang Theory. Your poster should:
 - □ Identify the themes in both texts
 - Explain similarities and differences in themes between both texts
 - □ Use both written and Visual modes
