TASK DESCRIPTION

Nature of the task

You are to select an area of interest, from the modern period, which you will investigate and research. You will present your findings in the form of an oral presentation and a written reflection. The oral presentation and written reflection are due on Thursday 04/07/2024

You may wish to select one of the following to research in relation to your chosen area of interest:

- aspects of society as revealed through sources
- the causes and impacts of an historical event
- the significance of an historical development
- tracing the development of an aspect of the past over time through a thematic approach
- the analysis of an historical debate
- the contribution of an historical site to our understanding of the past
- constructions of the modern world (e.g., an interpretation or representation of an individual, group or event)
- the nature of social and cultural change in a decade of the 20th century.

When selecting a topic, take into account the availability of information and a variety of sources.

The investigation must not overlap with or duplicate significantly any topic to be attempted in the Year 12 Modern History or History Extension courses. This should be checked with your teacher.

TASK INSTRUCTIONS

Nature of the task

Oral presentation (5-10 minutes)

You will present the findings of your historical investigation to the class through a 5 to 10 minute oral presentation. You will need to present the question or area of study that you have developed followed by the conclusions you have come to through the analysis and use of evidence from sources. Include two sources used and demonstrate the analysis you applied in order to determine the evidence.

Written reflection (700-900 words)

Your written reflection must focus on the process of historical investigation undertaken.

You will need to reflect on one or more of the following:

- planning your investigation
- analysis of sources
- problems related to sources
- development and analysis of historical interpretations
- selecting and organising information
- development of conclusions.

Marking criteria

You will be assessed on how well you:

- conduct an historical investigation and present reasoned conclusions, using evidence
- analyse and interpret a range of sources
- reflect on the historical investigation process
- communicate a logical, structured and cohesive response, using historical knowledge, concepts and terms

Feedback provided

- Feedback throughout the selection and investigation of the chosen question/area of study
- Annotations of marking guidelines noting strengths and areas for improvement
- Discussion with teacher about ways forward to build on knowledge, understanding and skills for future learning

Submission requirements:

- You are to submit a hard copy of your presentation and written reflection to Miss Nott at the conclusion of Period 3 04/07/2024
- You will present your work to the class during Period 4 on 04/07/2024 in an order pre-arranged by your teacher.
- If you require an extension on the due date of this task, speak to the Head Teacher Administration (Ms Eagles)
